

Leading questions

- Where to these illustrations take place?
- In your opinion, do these illustrations express something different or special? What is it?
- How do you, or someone that you know, help provide for the needy and poor?

