

"Next Year in Rebuilt Jerusalem"

On finishing the reading of the Haggadah at the end of the Seder Night, Jewish people worldwide sing, "Next Year in Jerusalem." This statement expresses each person's desire to ascend to Jerusalem and the belief that if he didn't make it this year, he will succeed next year. The song is sung in Israel and even in Jerusalem even though they are already in Jerusalem because Jerusalem symbolizes the completeness and unity of the people of Israel, and the saying is a wish for a better future.

Po you also have a wish? What is your wish?
