

First Temple

586
B.C.

The Babylonian Exile

586–516
B.C.

”By the rivers of Babylon,
there we sat down, there we wept,
when we remembered Zion”

The Building of the Second Temple

516
B.C.

”But a number of the priests and Levites and the heads of families, old men who had seen the first house, when the base of this house was put down before their eyes, were overcome with weeping; and a number were crying out with joy”

The Hasmoneans the story of Hannukah

167-37
B.C.

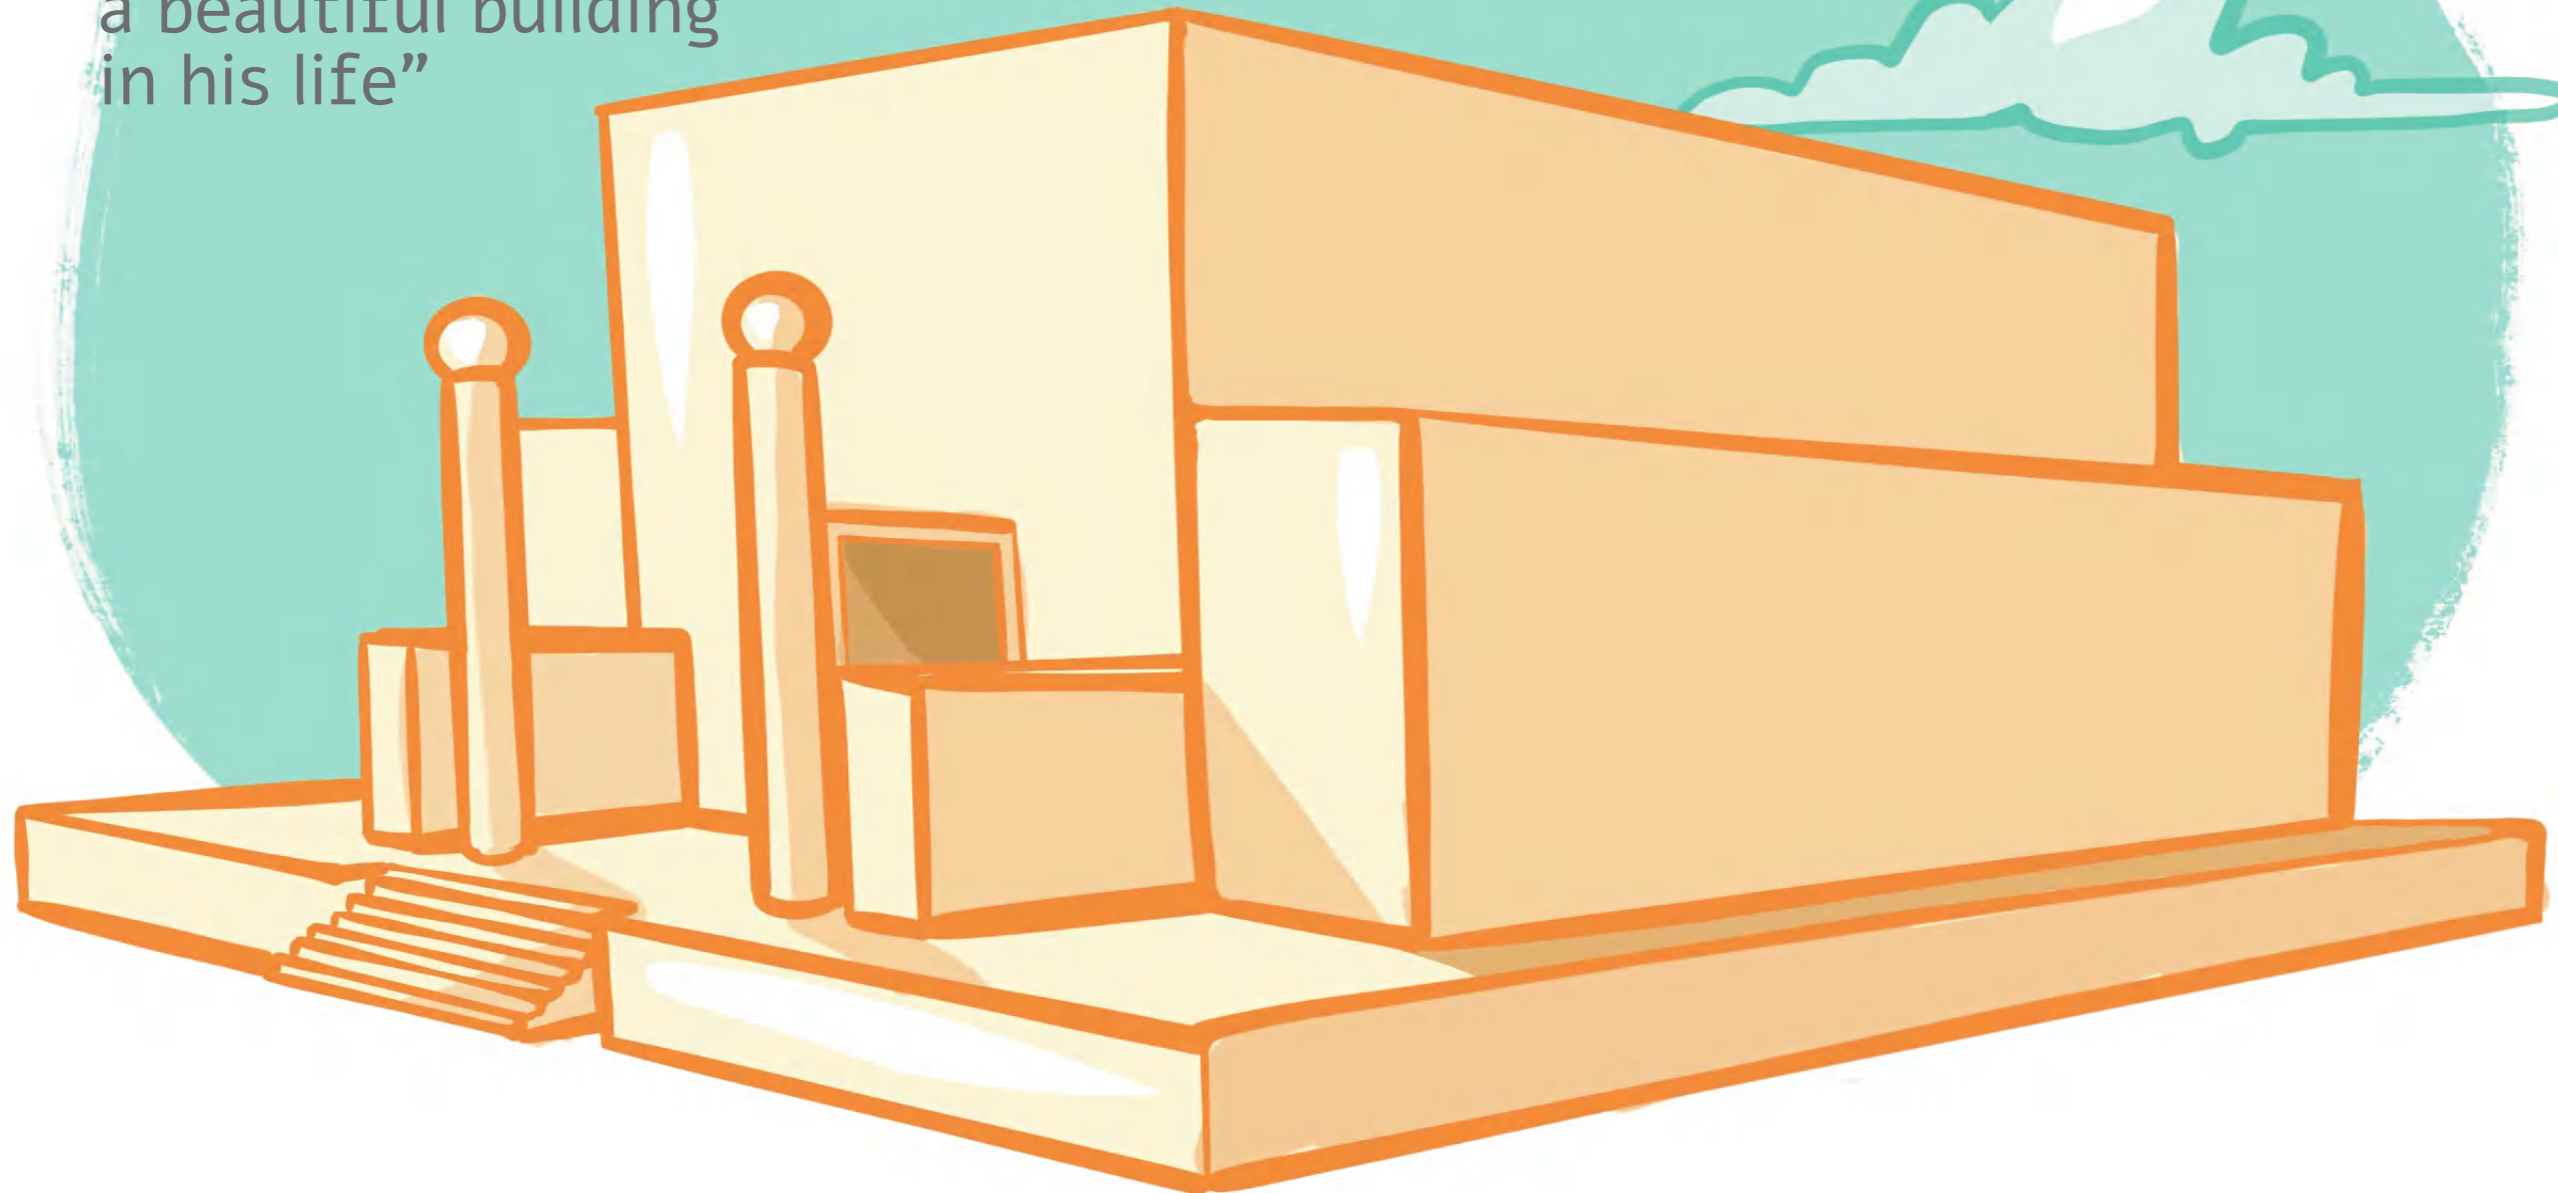

”And you are to make a support for lights, of the best gold; its base and its pillar are to be of hammered gold”

The Period of Herod

37-4
B.C.

"Whoever has not seen Herod's building, has not seen
a beautiful building
in his life"

Destruction of the Second Temple

70
A.D.

Going into Exile

70-135
A.D.

Jerusalem of Today

1948
Today

”Elderly men and women
will sit in the streets of Jerusalem...”

